Dear Sir:

Response to Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application

RE:                    Application Serial No.:      10/058,969
                         Applicant:                    Robert C. Rajewski
                         Title:                                UTILITY POLE INSTALLATION SYSTEM
                         Filed:                                January 30, 2002
                         Art Unit:                              3652
                         Examiner:                        Not Yet Known
                         Attorney Docket No.:            004-55

This is in response to the Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application dated February 27, 2002. Accordingly, applicant submits the following documents:

1. Declaration for patent application signed by the applicant. Please grant the applicant's request for priority from Canadian patent application no. 2,367,805, filed January 16, 2002. The serial number of the Canadian patent application was not available to the applicant when filing the U.S. patent application. Please issue an amended official filing certificate showing the serial number of the corresponding Canadian patent application.
2. A cheque for $519.00, which represents the filing fee of $370.00, additional claims fee for 2 independent claims over 3, $84.00, and late payment surcharge of $65.00.
3. Copy of Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application.
4. Information disclosure statement with copies of cited references.
